

V E R S A T O R I U M

Trespassing Translating

A WORKSHOP

SATURDAY 9:00-10:30am / 10:45-12:15 - ROOM 120

ReB ILDING

acco ding to the HAUSBAU diction try #441-448/8692-28704

you can do it - we can elp: the wor shop is going to a partwe pation-translation ich trainsports bricks, con uct ion plans, and po'em the N M C in a per or m tive way the shop various materials used to gest how to BILD a am hackle house. Neuberg, whi iron lly train late i o ne mount , is lace of TR INing. th the for local train track -- out of vice t day, he ol k. k. rain stat on place off tim ables. i is t is lack ut l ty nd in tructur that makes in this space so tion then has th om to un off in any direction. all these trains don't ave to arrive anyw , y don't eve ve to get go ng, there s no rout , no ointments -- punctuality, however, is imperative:

~~~~~
~~~~~
~~~~~

VERSATORIUM, a Vienna based association for poems and translating, brings together people from different disciplines including Comparative Literature, German and English Studies, Art History, Fine Arts and Music.

Members of the VERSATORIUM present: Helmut Ege, Franziska Füchsl, Daniel Lange, Gregor Pirgie, Felix Reinstadler, Miriam Rainer, Alexander Wöran.