

The background of the page features several artistic images: a top left image of numerous plastic bottles hanging in a dark space; a middle left image of a person in white clothing performing with white fabric in a green outdoor setting; a bottom left image of a dark, textured space with blue lights and a small glowing object; and a bottom right image of a person singing into a microphone in front of a large screen displaying a colorful abstract pattern.

Black Mountain College

MUSEUM + ARTS CENTER

{Re}HAPPENING 14

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Black Mountain College Museum + Arts Center announces an opportunity for artists to participate in the 2026 {Re}HAPPENING on Saturday, April 25th at Camp Rockmont in Black Mountain, NC, the former Lake Eden campus of Black Mountain College.

We invite artists to propose projects that reflect the innovative spirit of Black Mountain College. Artists are encouraged to take risks and demonstrate elements of process, experimentation, and collaboration. Projects can be durational or scheduled and can be sited indoors or outdoors.

Successful LOIs will:

- + Convey the visual and/or multi-sensory impact of the work
- + Utilize installation components to immerse visitors
- + Articulate conceptual resonances with the legacy of BMC
- + Incorporate visual or auditory work samples
- + Take into consideration our “leave-no-trace” installation policy

For more information and to see previous examples of projects, visit:
blackmountaincollege.org

PROPOSALS DUE:

January 21, 2026

Notification by:

February 12, 2026